

Beautiful Gifts Make Beautiful Music

THE SWEET AND SPLENDID SOUNDS OF THE PERAGALLO ORGAN, THE STEINWAY GRAND PIANO, AND THE MARYWOOD UNIVERSITY CHAMBER SINGERS RESONATED THROUGH THE MARIAN CHAPEL LAST FALL AT A SPECIAL MUSICAL EVENT TO CELEBRATE THE GENEROSITY OF THE FUREY, PERAGALLO, AND ROCHE FAMILIES. THE RECITAL ALSO FEATURED PERFORMANCES BY MARK LAUBACH AND RICK HOFFENBERG.

Above left: Mrs. Ellen W. Furey (M.A. '76) presented the University with a Steinway Grand Piano for the Marian Chapel, honoring her children, Sandy A. Furey, III, M.D., who studied organ at Marywood; Julie Ann Furey '84; and Ellen's husband, the late Sandy A. Furey, M.D., a former Marywood trustee.

Above right: Music alumna Marie Terotta Roche '52 and her husband, Gerard, a former Marywood trustee, right, presented the University with a Peragallo Pipe Organ for the Marian Chapel. This gift celebrates her gratitude for receiving an IHM education. The couple's two daughters are also Marywood alumnae. Organist Mark Laubach, center, is pictured with the Roches.

Left: The stately pipe organ is the work of John Peragallo, III, of the Peragallo Pipe Organ Company, now in its fourth generation. To commemorate this special occasion, the Peragallo family established the John Peragallo, Jr., Scholarship at Marywood, which assists aspiring organ scholars to study this great and noble instrument. Pictured are Mrs. John Peragallo, Jr., her son, Mr. John Peragallo, III, and his son, Mr. John Peragallo, IV.
